

The 6th Edition of Innovations and State of the Art in

ALZHEIMER'S & DEMENTIA

Berlin, Germany on OCT 01-02, 2025

INNOVINC is pleased to announce the 6th Edition of Innovations and State of the Art in ALZHEIMER'S & DEMENTIA (ISAD-2025) will be in Berlin, Germany, from October 01-02, 2025.

ISAD-2025 is a multi-disciplinary approach that provides a unique opportunity for delegates to listen to alternative viewpoints and mesh those with their own ways of thinking. ISAD-2025 believes this crossover provides crucial learnings within the field, as together we are far more powerful than we are alone.

We cordially invite the speakers, academicians, scientists, researchers, students and business delegates who have a keen interest in the study of Alzheimer's and Dementia disorders to join us

The objective is to discuss ways to Advance the neurological sciences pertaining to Alzheimer's and Dementia disorders; Improve the diagnosis and treatment of patients; to operate exclusively for scientific, scholarly and educational purposes; Disseminate knowledge about these disorders by providing educational programs for clinicians, scientists and the general public; Promote research into causes, prevention and treatment of Dementia and Alzheimer's by providing safe and effective therapeutic interventions from the research and regulatory agencies.

We hope that this event will bring us back to our regular congress routine and that we will be able to see each other in person, rekindle friendships and collaborations, and establish new ones.

We look forward to seeing in Barcelona!!

Sincerely yours.
