Welcome Message:

Dear Colleagues,

The International Experts Summit on Nursing Science and Practice (Nursing Summit-2025) will be held from November 24–26, 2025, in Lisbon, Portugal. This global gathering brings together leading nursing professionals, healthcare practitioners, researchers, and educators to share the latest advancements, best practices, and innovations in nursing science and patient care.

The summit will feature keynote speeches, expert panels, oral and poster presentations, and interactive workshops covering a broad range of topics including clinical nursing, public health, advanced nursing practices, nursing education, healthcare technology, and global health challenges.

Join us in Lisbon to engage in inspiring discussions, build professional networks, and explore collaborative opportunities aimed at shaping the future of nursing

About Lisbon, Portugal:

About: Lisbon

Lisbon, the vibrant capital of Portugal, is a captivating blend of old-world charm and modern sophistication. Nestled along the scenic Atlantic coast, the city is renowned for its historic neighbourhoods, colourful tiled architecture, and stunning views from its iconic hilltop vantage points. Visitors can explore landmarks like Belém Tower, the Jerónimos Monastery, and the historic Alfama district, while enjoying the soulful sounds of Fado music echoing through its streets. Lisbon also boasts a rich culinary tradition, with specialties such as bacalao, pasties de nata, and fresh seafood delighting the palate. Its welcoming atmosphere and dynamic cultural scene make it an ideal setting for international gatherings.

Getting to Lisbon by Air:

Lisbon is served by Humberto Delgado Airport (LIS), located just 7 kilometres from the city centre. The airport offers direct international flights from major global cities including New York, London, Dubai, Frankfurt, and São Paulo. Public transportation options, such as metro, buses, and taxis, provide easy and quick access from the airport to various parts of the city.
