About Conference

The 5th International Conference on Infectious Diseases will continue its legacy as a leading global platform by convening researchers, clinicians, public health professionals, and industry experts in London, UK, on June 22-23, 2026. Building upon the success of previous editions, the 2026 conference is designed to be a hub for exchanging knowledge, forging impactful collaborations, and sharing groundbreaking insights in the field of infectious diseases. The engaging scientific agenda will feature keynote lectures, interactive sessions, poster presentations, and panel discussions led by world-renowned experts, fostering the interdisciplinary dialogue necessary to shape the future of global infectious disease prevention and management.

With the theme “Redefining Frontiers in Infectious Diseases: Innovation, Collaboration, and a Healthier Future,” this edition aims to explore transformative research, novel diagnostic tools, vaccine development, and sustainable strategies that strengthen preparedness and response to emerging and re-emerging infections.

Join us in London, a city known for its scientific excellence and cultural vibrancy, as we work together to advance innovation, resilience, and collaboration in the fight against infectious diseases worldwide.
