About The Event

In Boston, at AWC 2025, the world gathered for One united purpose: to rewrite the future of addiction care. That gathering didn't just break attendance records—it ignited a movement. Now, that momentum surges forward into a new city, a new theme, and a new era.

AWC 2026 is not just another conference; it's a global convergence of change-makers, visionaries, and frontline experts.

And it's happening in Miami, Florida, USA, from September 18 to 20, 2025.

This year's theme, "Global Perspectives on Addiction: Trends, Treatment, and Policy," challenges us to go deeper than ever before—beyond treatment, beyond theory, and into the very systems that define how we approach addiction in our communities, clinics, schools, and homes.

At AWC 2026, you're not just attending, you're contributing to a historic shift.

Together, we'll explore breakthrough research, innovative therapies, and practical strategies that are shaping the future of prevention, treatment, and recovery. Expect dynamic keynote addresses, thought-provoking panels, hands-on workshops, and global networking opportunities that ignite new ideas and long-term impact.

AWC 2026 will unite those who are not only asking questions but also creating solutions. From neuroscience to public policy, from clinical care to community action, this is where knowledge becomes power and action becomes change.

The challenge is vast. An estimated 270 million people, 5.5% of the world's population aged 15–64, used psychoactive substances in the past year. Over 35 million now live with drug use disorders, many without access to proper care or support.
